Opening Lecture:

“Doing Business in Latin America and the Caribbean: Challenges and Opportunities”

Featuring:

Mr. Peter Quilter

Friday, April 27, 2018

6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

A Reception will follow the Lecture

Mr. Peter Quilter is a Non-resident Senior Fellow at Harvard Kennedy School’s Ash Center for Democratic Governance and Innovation, and former Assistant Secretary for Administration and Finance at the Organization of American States (OAS). Before assuming his post with the OAS, Mr. Quilter served as a senior Democratic staff member of the U.S. House of Representatives Committee on Foreign Affairs with responsibility for the Western Hemisphere. In this capacity, he advised Ranking Member Eliot Engel on all matters and legislation related to the Americas, and Committee Chairmen Howard Berman and Tom Lantos before that. He has held posts in the U.S. State Department and was a Latin America policy advisor to both Obama presidential campaigns, as well as the Kerry campaign before that. Mr. Quilter spent eight years as senior policy advisor to Secretary General Cesar Gaviria at the OAS, where he distinguished himself as a top level diplomatic negotiator and conflict resolution expert in some of the most explosive political situations in the Americas. He served in a Clinton administration political appointment as special advisor at the State Department’s Western Hemisphere bureau.
